Simon Pryor – Director Policy

Simon joined the Business Council of Australia in 2007 as an economist with a mix of commercial, financial and policy experience.

He has previously worked in the airline and telecommunications sectors in Australia and the United Kingdom, and as an economics and policy adviser for a leading Australian public policy consultancy. Immediately before joining the Business Council of Australia, Simon was an adviser on industry policy in the Victorian Department of Premier and Cabinet.

Simon has a Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) from the University of Melbourne and a Graduate Diploma in Applied Finance and Investment.
