

Peter Crone – Chief Economist and Director Policy

Peter is a macroeconomist with a deep perspective on the operation of the Australian economy and financial system, and possesses high-level experience in public policy formulation.

Immediately prior to joining the Business Council of Australia, Peter worked for Access Capital Advisers where he provided investment advice to a number of Australian superannuation funds. Before that, he worked as a senior adviser with Access Economics.

From 1997 to 2005 Peter was Senior Economic Adviser to Prime Minister John Howard. He also served as an adviser to the Premier of Victoria, Jeff Kennett.

Peter has held a number of company directorships and has previously worked in the Commonwealth Treasury.

He holds a Bachelor of Economics (Honours) from the University of Western Australia and a Master of Economics from the Australian National University.
