

Dr Ruth Dunkin – Director Policy

Dr Ruth Dunkin has over 30 years experience in the public and higher education sectors, with a strong background and interest in public policy.

She gained experience in public policy development, evaluation and implementation in the Victorian Public Service in departments such as Treasury, Premiers and Transport.

Moving from the public sector to the Hay Group's strategic management practice, she worked on strategy development and strategic human resource strategies with clients in the finance, aerospace and utility sectors.

She then moved to RMIT University where she was Deputy Vice-Chancellor, first in resource management and then in academic management. She was Vice-Chancellor of RMIT University between 2000 and 2004.

Since leaving RMIT Ruth has been involved in policy development and strategy consulting and advisory work for a variety of clients.

She has a Masters in Public Administration from Harvard and a PhD in organisational change from the University of Melbourne.
